End of year message

Dear Suppliers

On behalf of the team at Murray Goulburn, I'd like to wish you and your families all the best for a safe and happy festive season.

Undoubtedly 2017 has been a challenging year for Murray Goulburn and as the year draws to a close, I would like to extend my sincere gratitude for your ongoing support. With the new year now approaching, I want to again reaffirm my commitment to working with your Board, to successfully navigate the Saputo transaction and deliver the best possible outcome for our valued suppliers.

Once again, best wishes for the festive season and year ahead.

Kind regards

Ari Mervis
